

BIOGRAPHY

Andrés is one of the co-directors of IDD LAC. He received his law degree from the National University of Córdoba, Argentina, and has more than 15 years of experience in public ICT policy and Internet Governance.

He has worked in various fields of multisectoral dialogue including global forums of the United Nations System, international treaty negotiations, and other High-Level programs covering diverse roles.

Between 2015 and 2016, he served as General Manager at LACTLD and previously as President of LACRALO at ICANN At Large and as Leader in Strategic Relations at LACNIC, integrating on its behalf, working groups in the United Nations CSTD, in the organ of government at eLAC Program, the Latin American Digital Agenda coordinated by ECLAC and in the LACIGF Secretariat and Program Committee.

He has participated in the negotiations between the Internet Technical Community and the North American Department of State on the transition of oversight functions over the DNS (IANA) between 2013 and 2016.

He is also a columnist in several radio shows and graphic media and was a professor at the Blas Pascal Universities and the National University of Córdoba.

He is currently an International Consultant and Legal Advisor on issues related to Digital Rights.

He speaks Spanish and English.