

MARINA PASSOS

STRATEGIC RELATIONS

BIOGRAPHY

Marina is the IDD LAC reference person in Brazil. She collaborates in diverse projects and assists in strengthening relationship with the different stakeholders.

She has a degree in Engineering from the Federal University of Viçosa and an MBA in Project Management from Fundação Getúlio Vargas, with an extension at the University of California Irvine.

Throughout her career, she has worked in project management in private sector companies in Brazil and Uruguay. Currently, she works on digital transformation projects in the Brazilian private sector.

She speaks Portuguese, Spanish and English.